

re:renewable energy expo

Join local people taking action on climate change

EVENING GATHERING FRIDAY 7.30PM - 9.30PM

Australia's leading renewable energy expert and author Dr Mark Deisendorf will discuss the future of renewable energy and how renewable energy can help us combat the climate change crisis. Mark will be followed by presentations on local projects and ways you can be involved.

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY

EXHIBITION SATURDAY 10.00AM - 4.00PM

Exhibitions and information sessions on solar power, solar hot water, wind technology, energy efficient homes, electric cars, bioenergy, gasification, biofuel, carbon offsetting and sequestering CO2 in soil. See technology in action, share ideas and learn from industry experts. Food, drinks and children's entertainment available.

■ WHEN

FRIDAY & SATURDAY NOVEMBER 9 & 10, 2007

■ WHERE

CAMPBELL'S CREEK COMMUNITY CENTRE

■ WHAT

PRESENTATIONS AND EXHIBITIONS SHOWCASING THE LATEST IN: SOLAR AND WIND TECHNOLOGY, ENERGY EFFICIENT HOMES, BIOENERGY, ELECTRIC CARS AND MUCH MORE.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

Dean Bridgfoot or Jayson Burhop of MASG, phone: (03) 5470 6978 or 0448 327 791

www.masg.org.au

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY

MANFRED AND RITA PRUTER AND THE GREENSPRING FOUNDATION

NORTH CENTRAL Catchment Management Authority

re:renewable energy expo