

At the Growing the Harvest Festival there will be displays of locally grown food and workshops on how to home-process these foods. We would love you to join in the fun by coming by entering our produce display to be held at the Anglican Church Hall.

Do you have something that fits into one of the categories below? and you think it maybe the best produce in the town then join our produce competition... See below

Name Address

Phone Email

Please circle the category you wish to enter in:

- JAMS (all homemade with recipe included in entry)

Blackberry jam, Strawberry jam, Raspberry jam, Apricot jam, Plum jam, Jam with assorted fruits, Sugar free jam

- Chutney and Relish (all homemade with recipe included in entry)

Tomato Kasundi, Tomato relish, Zucchini relish Sundried tomatoes, Assorted homemade pickle to your own favorite recipe Tomato Passata

- Preserves(all homemade with recipe included in entry)

Preserved Pears, Preserved Apricots, Preserved Nectarines, Preserved Plums, Preserved Cherries

- VEGETABLES

Longest Zucchini, Biggest Butternut or Japanese pumpkin, Bushel of beans, Plait of onions, Plait of garlic, Bunch of carrots, bunch rocket, lettuce

- FRUIT

5 apples, 5 quinces, 3 pomegranates, bowl of medlars, lemons, grapefruit

- Olives

Olives on a branch, olives preserved , olive oil

- The strangest shaped vegetable or fruit

Please return to the Mount Alexander Sustainability Group P.O. box 1043 Castlemaine 3450 or drop off at the rear of 233 Barker st Castlemaine. Enquiries to Debbie Taylor 0414814993

All entries need to be delivered to the Anglican Church Hall Castlemaine on Thursday 10th April between 4pm and 5pm or Friday 11th April between 9am and 10.30am. If neither times suit please drop your produce with name and telephone number attached into the Mount Alexander Sustainability Group (rear 233 Barker St) .

If you wish to have your entries back, they must be collected on Sunday 13th April between 2- 3 pm.